Pulitzer Prize winner Krauthammer addresses Cedarville University Constitution Day

CEDARVILLE, OHIO – Charles Krauthammer, Pulitzer Prize-winning Washington Post columnist and Fox News analyst, will speak at Cedarville University's Constitution Day on Thursday, Sept. 17, at 7 p.m. in the Dixon Ministry Center. The event is sponsored by the Center for Political Studies at Cedarville University.

"Dr. Krauthammer is a keen observer of the political scene in America. He will give us a better understanding of the upcoming election, the candidates and the policies at work," said Mark Caleb Smith, Ph.D., director of the Center for Political Studies.

Since 1985, Krauthammer has written weekly columns for the Washington Post and received a Pulitzer Prize for his distinguished commentary. His weekly syndicated column is carried in more than 400 newspapers around the country. The Financial Times called Krauthammer "the most influential commentator in America."

Krauthammer is a regular contributor on Fox News, providing commentary and political analysis for "Special Report with Bret Baier," "The O'Reilly Factor" and "FOX News Sunday." Krauthammer has also authored two books: "Democratic Realism" and "Things That Matter."

Admission to the event is free with advance registration at Cedarville.edu/Krauthammer. Tickets will be $10 at the door. In addition to his evening speaking engagement, Krauthammer will interact with Cedarville students during a question and answer session earlier in the day.
